

FAMILY READINESS GROUP GRANTS

Family Readiness Groups (FRGs) are authorized to be established in accordance Army Regulations 608-1 and 600-20 as Nonappropriated Fund Instrumentalities.

The purpose of an FRG is to support the Commander's family readiness goals for unit members and their families for morale, cohesion and wellbeing of these individuals.

Units may request funding, not to exceed $500.00 once every 12 months to support functions such as pre departure and return from deployment activities for unit members and their families. Additionally, units also schedule "Family Days" and holiday parties which are eligible for financial support.

Applications will be made on the attached request form and signed by both the Commander and FRG Chairperson. All requests must include copies of the documents listed as enclosures on the application form. Requests from FRGs with a bank balance in excess of $5,000 will not be considered.

Applications will be sent through the Family Programs Office designated representative to the State Family Readiness Council point of contact as determined by the Council. If the application is approved it will be forwarded to the Council Treasurer for payment to the requesting FRG.
